FLEXIBLE LEARNING

that fits your life.

In a flexible learning environment, elements such as your study duration, location, and instructional method become empowering choices for you, the student. Start your learning journey today!

EXPLORE DIVERSE LEARNING PATHS

At USask, you have the flexibility to tailor your learning experience. Whether you prefer the vibrant atmosphere of our main campus in Saskatoon, the community-focused environment at the USask Prince Albert campus, the convenience of regional college locations, or the flexibility of online classes from the comfort of your home, we offer a range of delivery modes to suit your needs.

IN-PERSON CLASSES

Face-to-face classes take place in a traditional classroom setting. These classes are typically scheduled once a week and last for three hours each. You will attend class on a USask campus.

EXPLORE LOCATIONS

You can begin, continue or complete any USask degree, diploma or certificate program at the main USask campus in Saskatoon, the home of USask's 17 colleges and schools. In addition, you can begin, continue or complete USask programs at other locations across the province.
