

DEGREES

- 3 and 4 year degree programs
- Master's Degree
- Ph.D. Degree

MINORS

- Minor in Sociology
- Minor in Crime, Law and Justice

SPECIALTY PROGRAMS

- Indigenous Justice and Criminology
- Certificate in Criminology and Addictions
- Dual Master's Degree with Xi'an Jiaotong University in China

Sociology provides skills employers value:

- Critical Thinking
- Written and Oral Communication
- Research Methods
- Problem Solving
- Understanding Different Perspectives
- Understanding Institutions and Group Dynamics

Through a Sociology degree, you will learn how to:

- Design a research study
- Organize information
- Analyze data
- Identify important findings
- Make policy recommendations
- Communicate results
- Work in collaboration with others

Department of Sociology

Phone: 306-966-6947

Email: sociology@usask.ca

artsandscience.usask.ca/sociology/

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Arts and Science
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
ARTSANDSCIENCE.USASK.CA

Sociology

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

What is Sociology?

Sociology is the study of individuals, their social interactions and the society in which they live.

Sociologists study:

- social behaviours
- relationships between people, groups, institutions and nations
- how the world we live in shapes our experiences
- diversity, power and inequality

Sociology students at USask can take courses on:

- Aging
- Crime and Justice
- Development
- Education
- Families
- Gender
- Globalization
- Health
- Indigenous Knowledge
- Inequality
- Migration
- Race and Ethnicity
- Religion
- Surveillance and Control
- Work

Opportunities for Sociology Students

Sociology will help you develop skills to apply across a range of occupations including:

- Academia
- Education
- Government
- Justice System
- Law
- Media
- Marketing
- Public Health
- Social Services

For more information, visit

artsandscience.usask.ca/sociology/

