BENEFITS OF STUDYING @USASK PRINCE ALBERT CAMPUS

ACADEMIC AND WELLNESS SUPPORTS

The USask Prince Albert Campus offers a wide array of supports, such as academic advising, personal counselling, wellness supports and resources including community referrals and an on-campus nurse practitioner. All USask Prince Albert Campus students have free access to our Prince Albert Campus Writing Centre, which offers one-on-one support as well as weekly writing tutorials. We also offer weekly biology, chemistry and math tutorials.

CAMPUS AMENITIES

The Student Commons houses study spaces that include two bookable study rooms, computer and printer access, microwaves and vending machines. Our Comfort Room is also available as a quiet space for new mothers and their babies, and we are proud to be a part of the Campus Period Project, which supplies free menstrual products in our student washrooms.

CULTURAL AND SPIRITUAL SUPPORTS

Students have access to Elders and Knowledge Keepers and are encouraged to take part in ceremonies and teachings throughout the year. We offer weekly smudging, monthly teachings, cultural counselling and advice, and access to our Gathering Place ceremonial room. Students also have access to spiritual care from our volunteer clergy, as well as Muslim prayer space.

INSTRUCTION

With over 50 face to face classes offered each academic year, the USask Prince Albert Campus offers students both variety in course selection and much smaller class sizes. Our biology, chemistry, nursing, and dental labs are brand new and state-of-the-art, allowing students to be on the cutting edge of learning. Students also have the option to take a wide array of online classes for further flexibility and course selection.

SAVE MONEY

By studying in or closer to your home community, you can save significantly on living costs. And, as a USask student, you can apply for USask scholarships and bursaries to help fund your education, both when you begin your studies and as a continuing student.
