Benefits of studying @Southeast College

FLEXIBILITY

Starting your degree closer to home is a great way to ease your transition to university. As a University of Saskatchewan (USask) student living in your home community, you can enjoy more flexibility in balancing your studies with work and family life.

A limited number of in person classes are offered at the Weyburn campus. USask online classes are available at other Southeast College satellite campuses.

PERSONALIZED INSTRUCTION

Class sizes at Southeast College can be less intimidating and can provide opportunities for more one-on-one interactions with instructors, fellow students, and support staff. A limited number of classes are delivered face-to-face or fully online; students may take a combination of these options.

SAVE MONEY

By studying closer to your home community, you can take advantage of lower costs of living and other community or familial supports. As a full-time USask student, you may be eligible for USask scholarships and bursaries as well as those offered by Southeast College.

NEXT STEPS

- Talk to a USask advisor
- Meet with the local advisor at Southeast College
- Apply for admission to USask as a student at a Southeast College campus
